This 3-bedroom townhouse sits in Torrox Costa, in El Mirador on the Mediterranean Sea. It stands out for its 130 m2 terrace and resort setting.

The property has 2 bathrooms, 111 m2 built, and a large terrace. It is part of a brand new resort completed in early 2024. The homes feature Scandinavian design and interiors, with modern construction and good insulation. The resort is built with sustainable execution and green energy production.

Inside, the home is designed with a Danish-inspired style and quality. The source does not give a detailed room layout, furnishing status, or specific interior extras.

Outside, there are several terraces and large outdoor areas. The resort offers an infinity pool, a wellness area, a fitness centre, and a tapas bar. The source does not state private parking or storage for this home.

El Mirador is in Torrox Costa, 50km from Malaga. It is right on the Mediterranean Sea, which gives easy access to a coastal resort lifestyle.
