This three-bedroom townhouse is in Chaparral, Mijas Costa, with a private garden and a modern, functional design. It has 3 bathrooms, 170 m² built, and 35 m² of terrace space. It is arranged over 2 floors and enjoys a quiet position close to the green areas.

The home has a bright open-plan layout on the ground floor. The modern kitchen has an island and opens to the living room. The master bedroom is very generous in size and has a dressing area and an en-suite bathroom. The other bedrooms share another bathroom. There is also a guest toilet and a spacious laundry room or pantry. The house is full of light and is recently completed.

The covered terrace connects directly to the garden. Parking is within the gated complex, directly at the rear of the house, with a charger for electric cars. The community has gardens, a large swimming pool, and only 80 townhouses. Chaparral is close to golf courses, beaches, and the sea, with Malaga city less than half an hour away.
