This apartment in Sierra Nevada is made for both comfort and mountain living. With space for up to ten guests, it offers three bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a large living room with its own fireplace and cocktail bar.

Big windows open up to wide views of the mountains, so you can watch the sunset while relaxing after a day on the slopes. The kitchen is fully equipped with quality appliances, and the bathrooms include modern details like heated towel racks and even a steam room with shower.

For families or groups, the apartment has plenty of extras: a master bedroom with its own TV, a bunk room where each bed has its own screen, ski storage, and boot warmers. There's also free parking in the same building, making your arrival simple.

This place was designed for winter stays, whether you want to spend your day skiing or just enjoy a cozy evening inside. From breakfast with mountain views to winding down by the fire, it's set up to make your Sierra Nevada trip easy and memorable.
